

CALL FOR WORKSHOPS

Abstracts must be received by Friday, November 6, 2020.

Workshops will be considered based on proposed content related to the theme or any aspect of forestry, fisheries, wildlife, or soil and water conservation. View workshop presenter requirements and abstract submission instructions below.

WORKSHOP PRESENTER REQUIREMENTS

- Must be available February 2-4, 2021 to present live and virtually
- Must have the following technology to present virtually: laptop or computer, quality webcam and microphone or headset, and high speed internet
- Workshops will have a maximum time slot of two hours; when applicable, please adhere to the 20 minutes per presenter format
- Presenters and facilitator are the responsibility of the workshop organizer, contact information will be required in advance
- All workshops will be recorded
- All presenters must be registered for the event

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION INSTRUCTIONS

Submit the following information in one Word document to ray.wright@usda.gov by Friday, November 6, 2020.

Presentation Type: Workshop

Title:

Time Needed (2 Hours Maximum):

Workshop Organizer Name:

Workshop Organizer Organization:

Workshop Organizer Email Address:

Abstract (250 Words Maximum):

If you have questions, contact:

Ray Wright, USDA-NRCS

Email: ray.wright@usda.gov

Phone: (660) 886-4774 ext. 4232 or (660) 654-4557